CLUB®

Child Evangelism Fellowship® Inc.

WHAT Is a 5-Day Club?

For five consecutive days, one hour each day, children gather to hear Bible stories, sing songs, learn Bible verses, listen to a missionary story and hear the Gospel clearly presented.

WHO Does the Teaching?

Many of the clubs are taught by high-school- and college-age youth. Christian Youth In Action® (CYIA™) is a Child Evangelism Fellowship® (CEF®) program where youth from various local churches come together for intensive training and then conduct clubs all summer. Many are fully supported by their areas. 5-Day Clubs are also taught by concerned Christian adults who have received comparable training.

WHO Can Be a Host Family?

A host family is a respected, friendly family concerned about the spiritual welfare of the children in their neighborhood. They are willing to be used of God to win children to Christ.

WHAT Do Host Families Do?

- Open their backyard, recreation room or porch for the club.
- Help invite boys and girls to the club, showing the children where the club will be held. (Printed invitations are available through your CEF office.)
- Help write down the children's names, addresses and other information.
- Prepare a simple snack for the children.
- In some cases sit with the children during club and help solve discipline problems that may occur.
- Say goodbye to the children and encourage them to attend the next day. On the last day of the club, remind those who have received correspondence courses to fill them out and mail them in.

How Do Host Families Benefit from 5-Day Clubs?

- They get to know neighborhood children in a personal way.
- They may see many receive the Lord Jesus Christ as their personal Savior.
- They may invite unchurched children to attend their church's Sunday school.
- They may encourage neighborhood children to continue visiting and sharing with them.
- They may be able to speak to the parents of neighborhood children about the Lord.
