

Lesson 2 God Shows His Greatness to Pharaoh Relay

Take the Challenge!

Materials

Materials for one or more of the challenges suggested below: towels, ping-pong balls, balloons, craft feathers or cotton balls

Lead the Games

When Moses was born it was a very challenging time for the Israelites. It was a great challenge and danger for Israelite women to have babies, especially boy babies. Why? (Lead students to participate in one or more of the following challenges)

Ping-Pong Challenge

Students form teams of four and hold a towel stretched out between them. Students work as a team to bounce a Ping-Pong ball up into the air without the ball falling onto the floor. Teams challenge each other to see who can keep the ball off the ground the longest.

Balloon Challenge

Give each student a balloon. Student writes initials on balloon. Student blows up balloon and pinches end to make sure no air escapes. All students stand shoulder-to-shoulder on one side of the playing area. At your signal, students let go of balloons and watch to see where balloons land. Student whose balloon lands farthest from the group gets to give the signal for the next round. (Variation: Blow up and tie balloons ahead of time. Students write their initials on balloons. Students hit the balloons as far as possible with one hit.)

Feather-Blowing Challenge

Students kneel around a table. Students on each side of the table form a team. Set a craft feather (or cotton ball) in the middle of the table. Students blow the feather toward the other side of the table while trying to keep the feather from falling off their own side of the table. (Variation: If you have small tables, students form pairs or trios. Teams rotate as in a tournament so that winners are challenging winners and vice versa.)
